Sales Update on Term Cancer Insurance Product Answering the need for higher coverage with affordable premiums

TOKYO, January 29, 2026 - LIFENET INSURANCE COMPANY (TSE Prime 7157, President Junpei Yokozawa, URL: <https://ir.lifenet-seimei.co.jp/en/>) discloses application data as of December 31, 2025, for “Lifenet Term Cancer Insurance” and “Lifenet Term Cancer Insurance for women,” launched on December 1, 2025.

■ Overview of Application Trends*¹

- With the launch of term cancer insurance, which is more affordable than whole-life product under identical conditions, term cancer applicants have shown a trend toward securing higher coverage.
- For applicants who bundled three term-type policies (Life, Medical, and Cancer), the average total monthly premium was 6,362 yen, allowing for comprehensive coverage at a lower cost compared to whole-life plans.
- 64% of cancer insurance applicants aged 39 and under selected term cancer insurance.
- 72% of female cancer insurance applicants selected the newly launched “Lifenet Term Cancer Insurance for women”.

*¹ Lifenet's application data from December 1 to 31, 2025

Lifenet will continue to provide information to promote term cancer insurance—an option that enables customers to secure high coverage while keeping premiums affordable—as the next-generation standard.
